CLUE HUNT CHALLENGE	LETTER
The old Land Rover is fun to drive. What's that hiding behind the back seat?	<input type="text"/>
Who's that trip trapping over my bridge? Please don't wake the troll, but the billy goats might point you to your next clue.	<input type="text"/>
At the bush settlement you'll see an old bed and a pair of shoes. Could a clue be about to find you?	<input type="text"/>
At the church look up to the heavens and you might be rewarded.	<input type="text"/>
Maisy the Highland lives in the Deer Park. Two trees nearby look different to all others. They have no leaves, but may hold something else.	<input type="text"/>
Find our wishing well and peer inside. A new clue might be waiting there for you.	<input type="text"/>
From the café decks you'll spot an old cart to play on. It is also carrying something you need to complete our challenge.	<input type="text"/>

WHO AM I?

I live in open grasslands & forests and like to stay with my herd.

I have excellent hearing and can move my ears to listen for danger.

Many of us keep our white spots even when we grow up.

My babies are called fawns.
